SAMUEL PERROTT.

Samuel Soaps, esserted,

"Who is" Daniel Webster!

The National Democrat contains the following palpa-ble hit at the Whigs for their treatment of Daniel Web-ster. They seem to think, because Webster don't swal-low Scott at a gulp, and allow his own once brilliant star to become a satellite to revolve round the luminary which he named "Feathers and Tar," that the God-like is no great shakes anyhow. Says the Do ocrat:

WHO IS GENERAL PIERCE?-This the question asked by the Whigs when Pierce was nominated for the Presidency, and we presume because he was nominated. On the same ground it now applies to Webster, who is in the field as a candidate, and can't help it if he would.

This will ruin him in the estimation of Scottites. He Millersville, Marion co., same day, at 3 o'clock P. M. will not be half as great a man as he has been. His logic, style, and statesmanship will fall below par. His oratory and letter writing will not compare with Scott's! Who is Daniel Webster, forsooth? He's not even a corporal. He never "fit" duels, bobbed, or dodged. He never quarrelled with granny Trist. He never did anything but make speeches, and they are poor things; now that he don't help the Whig party—worthless old creature, that same Daniel—isn't he Scottites?"

Fatal Casualty. The reception of Gen. Scott, yesterday, was attended with one of the melancholy events too often occurring on such occasions. A man named Henry Feller, attached to the cannon and acting as gunner, was so badly injured by a premature discharge, that he died in Landrey as a candidate for Assessor of Wayne township. a short time after the accident. His left arm was rent from the socket, and his side and face extremely mangled. Mr. Fellers was a blacksmith, of excellent character, having a wife and family of helpless children dependent on him for raiment and daily food.

James Lyons, Esq., of Richmond, Va., has come out in a long letter, giving the reasons why he cannot support Gen. Scott. Mr. Lyons has frequently served in the Virginia Legislature, and is one of the most talented or a fermenting Vat: so said Dr. Abernethy. The food men in the State. He stands among the first members of the Virginia bar. He has served as chairman of the Whig Central Committee of Virginia for a great many NOTIOE—STOLEN HORSES.—A couple of horses—one a bity seven or eight years old; the sorrel with a bluze down his face, and a sore on the top of his neck; the bay with both hind feet white, a linie blaze in his face, and a coller mark on hisnock—were, on Sunday, the 19th inst., left at the house of the subscriber road, by a boy named Josephus Hall, about sixteen years of age, who is now in the jail of Marion county on a charge of Horse stealing; and it is probable that the horses he left with me were also stolen. He says he was bringing them to this county from the American Bottoms, for a man named Edwards. The owner of the Horse is requested to come forward, prove his proporty, pay charges, and take them sway.
